The Consortium for a Healthier Miami-Dade, an initiative of the Miami-Dade County Health Department, is pleased to present this 4th Edition of its Community Resource Inventory for Healthy Living. Over 400 community resource listings are included in this guide featuring facilities, programs and services available for the promotion of healthy lifestyles among children, adults and seniors.

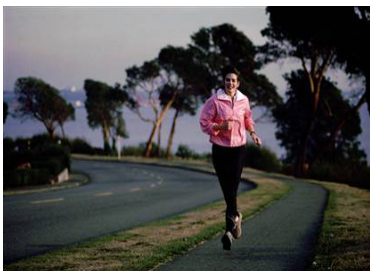

The listings featured in the Community Resource Inventory for Healthy Living 2007 are arranged by the following categories:

- Helpline Services
- County Health Department
- Primary and Specialty Care Centers
- Community Hospitals
- Local Hospital Systems' Urgent Care Centers
- Mobile Health Units
- Community Health Organizations
- School Based Programs
- University/College Based Programs
- Parks and Recreation

All resource listings are arranged in a grid format featuring name, location and contact information along the rows, and services provided along the columns. Parks, primary and specialty care centers and school based programs are further organized by five geographical areas: Northwest, Northeast, Beach, Kendall/Near South, and Far South Miami-Dade. To locate a resource in your local community or in another part of the county, please refer to the Miami-Dade County Regions Map on the preceding page to find the corresponding region based on your zip code.

It is the intention of the Consortium for a Healthier Miami-Dade and its 40 member organizations that this document can assist providers in finding resources available in their community that can help them and their clients reach and maintain their healthy living goals.
