We want to hear from you!!

Thriving Mind South Florida is interested in speaking with consumers, family members, supporters, caregivers and providers about what it is like to access behavioral health services to address mental health and substance abuse in Miami-Dade County.

- What's working in our community?
- What kinds of services do we need in place to address behavioral health?
  - How do we better support family and caregivers?
  - Is our community "behavioral health" friendly?
